Call for town to turn out in force to oppose library downgrading

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER Library supporters are hoping for another massive turnout in their quest to prevent a downgrade.

Buoyed by the 400 plus turnout for the recent drop-in consultation event, members of Support for Axminster Library hope for a repeat when Devon County Council (DCC) bosses visit the town council on Monday, June 9th in Axminster Guildhall (7pm).

Devon County Council has proposed to make a string of libraries, including Axminster, second-tier, and volunteer-led facilities without professional librarians as part of a £1.5 million cost-cutting exercise.

The plans are strongly opposed and a group of residents set up Support for Axminster Library to fight the proposals.

DCC Library Service bosses are busy attending consultation events at affected libraries.

They were so impressed with the Axminster turnout in May that they offered to visit again for a town council meeting.

Author and illustrator Jason Chapman helped set up Support for Axminster Library.

He said: "The more we have turning up on the day, the bigger difference it will make."

"It is about showing how passionate Axminster is in retaining the library as it is and not going down the volunteer route."

Library supporters are cautiously optimistic that the massive consultation turnout and differently interpreted

Family fun on the Minster Green

AXMINSTER & District Lions Club celebrated National Family Week by staging Fun on the Green.

Just like last year, Minster Green was packed with attractions and activities for the whole family.

This year's event took place on Saturday from 10am-2.30pm, and organisers and participants were delighted there was no rain.

One of the organisers, Lions President Jamie Love, said: "There were at least a few hundred people when Karizma Majorettes performed, it was heaven. It was a thoroughly enjoyable day."

There was also an international twist as a couple from Connecticut, USA, and members of a Lions club there joined the fun briefly.

Mr Love said: "They were on their way to catch a train but I just managed to get home and get them an Axminster club banner"

Sandra stars in second triathlon

THREE members of Honiton Running Club travelled to Taunton last Sunday to take part in the Taunton Triathlon.

The event comprised of 400 metres in the pool, followed by what was supposed to be a 20k bike ride, that at the last minute was changed to 30k! This was followed by a 5k run.

Running club member Sandra, in only her second triathlon, won her age category in a time of 1.49.39 and 136th overall.

Axmouth double hopes dashed

AXMOUTH United's hopes of retaining the Carlisle cup against Honiton Town Reserves were ended by a three goal salvo either side of half-time at Seaton FC, Colyford Road on Tuesday evening.

An even first-half saw Honiton find the net early on but the 'goal' was disallowed for offside.

At the other end Axmouth, who lifted the Galesworthy cup last week, went agonisingly close midway through the half when Asa Sandman's 23rd minute header from a corner came back off the top of the post.

Correy Couch was the choice of Seaton Town manager Keith Somers as the Burroughs Man-of-the-Match.

Plea for big turn out for library

AXMINSTER Library supporters are hoping for another massive turnout in their quest to prevent a downgrade.

Buoyed by the 400 plus turnout for the recent drop-in consultation event, members of Support for Axminster Library hope for a repeat when Devon County Council (DCC) bosses visit the town council on Monday, June 9th in Axminster Guildhall (7pm).

Devon County Council has proposed to make a string of libraries, including Axminster, second-tier, and volunteer-led facilities without professional librarians as part of a £1.5 million cost-cutting exercise.

The plans are strongly opposed and a group of residents set up Support for Axminster Library to fight the proposals.

COLYTON

Community Library?

SUPPORTERS of Colyton Library are looking at ways in which they could run the service as a community library, following news that Devon County Council is cutting its budget by £1.5million.

The Friends of Colyton Library were told at their annual general meeting in March that it would have to consider changes to the way the service is run in the future, as Devon County Council plans to cut a further £1.5million between the current financial year and 2016/17, having already made reductions of £3million over the past three years by reducing management and support services by over 30 per cent, opening hours by 16 per cent and investment in new books and other resources by 30 per cent.

The Friends are now considering potential ways in which they could turn the service into a community-run library, meaning they would take on responsibility for the building from the county council with a reduced income.

From the editor's chair How could this happen?

RESIDENTS concerned about the future of Seaton came out of the Town Hall last week shaking their heads in disbelief.

They just could not understand why town councillors had not discussed the controversial building of retirement apartments on the regeneration site instead of the preferred 100-room hotel – especially as the item was on the agenda.

They had taken part in a lively discussion during the public question time at the start of the council meeting during which a number spoke with real passion about Seaton's future.

There are widespread fears that the town will end up a colony for the retired with no jobs or homes for the young.

Jobless Steve Wilkinson struck a real cord when he told councillors that most of his mates had already moved away from Seaton and that he might have to do the same.

There was virtually unanimous agreement that Seaton needed more positive development proposals than more flats for the elderly.

Perhaps a 100-room hotel for Seaton was pie in the sky all along, but surely there will be other options to attract more people to the town? One way said a holiday camp would be a start!

But when it came to the main agenda, the public gallery was shocked that no discussion could take place. If councillors had been allowed to have their say it could have been interpreted as pre-determining any planning application that will come before them for a recommendation.

The public drifted out of the hall in disbelief and congregated outside where the Mayor of Colyford, Howard West, and I tried to explain that the council were left with little option and were probably as frustrated over the situation as they were.

It is almost certain that when the planning applications comes before town councillors, they will back the town's view. In the meantime, Howard and I advised those who felt most strongly to organise themselves into a protest group, just as Howard had done in Colyford to successfully fight the proposed green wedge development.

That group is now in place and they are holding a public meeting at the Hook & Parrot pub on Thursday evening. If the people of Seaton care about their town and want to see it thrive and prosper, they will turn out in their dozens to give their support and to make it quite clear to the powers that be that Seaton is fighting back.

SEATON

Protest group will fight more flats

A PROTEST group has been set up in Seaton to fight plans to build 43 retirement homes on the regeneration site in Harbour Road.

The move follows a number of impassioned pleas during the public question time at last week's meeting of Seaton Town Council in which residents warned the town was in danger of dying if more positive development was not allowed.

One of those who addressed the council was 25 year-old Steve Wilkinson, who told councillors he was unemployed and would probably have to leave his home town like most of his friends to find a job.

Mr Wilkinson is now one of the founding members of the newly-formed "Positive Development for Everyone in Seaton" protest group who have called a public meeting at the Hook and Parrot on Thursday (June 5th) at 7.30 pm.

The group has already set up a "No To Retirement Homes" petition which reads: "The residents of Seaton would like to inform East Devon District Council that they wish to see a growing vibrant town with an opportunity for tourism and trade to expand.

"We petition East Devon District Council to only provide permission for a hotel/holiday accommodation on the Harbour Road/Tesco regeneration site (Seaton)."

The petition can be signed until the end of June before being presented to East Devon District Council.

The protest group issued the following joint statement: "The feedback from people is that there is no need for this retirement home. We need to expand tourism, employment and affordable housing."

HONITON

Supermarket plan is on the way

A PLANNING application to build a supermarket at Heathpark is likely to be submitted "this year," a report has revealed.

The site, which is owned by EDDC, had been tipped as a potential location for the district authority's new headquarters, before a switch to Skypark emerged as the preferred option earlier this year.

Soon after the decision was made, rumours that the land could be sold for development surfaced. In March, EDDC leader Paul Diviani confirmed that a supermarket was "chasing" the site.

And a report, to be presented to East Devon District Council's cabinet this week, has confirmed that negotiations with a developer have taken place and an application is now being prepared.

The report says: "February 2014 cabinet and council reports agreed the selection of Terrace Hill as preferred developer for EDDC's former SITA depot site on Honiton Heathpark and authorised officers to enter into a conditional contract with Terrace Hill.

"Officers have been in further negotiation with the developer involving the project manager and council legal team and we are now agreeing contract terms.

"This will enable the developer to begin the process of preparing their planning application for a supermarket development. We anticipate that an application will be made later this calendar year."

SIDMOUTH

Town projects up for discussion

PEDESTRIANISING Fore Street, improving Christmas lights and tidying up the town centre are just some of the initial suggestions submitted to Sidmouth Town Council for where designated community cash could be spent.

The council has been seeking ideas from residents about how to improve the town and surrounding areas.

And the suggestions will later be put to a public vote to decide which projects will be awarded the cash.

Councillor Ian Barlow, who has been heading the initiative, said: "The town council wants to get everyone singing from the same hymn sheet on this.

"It is important that everybody has a say so that we can get lots of ideas together then put them to a vote so the whole town is behind whichever projects are chosen.

"It does not matter what it will cost – whether it is £1,000 or £100,000 – we will keep an open mind and any idea is up for discussion."

The council is lining up a number of community projects with an emphasis on boosting tourism and has opened the floor to suggestions from local people for how its money could best be spent.

So far, proposals have included the complete pedestrianisation of Fore Street and the construction of a wharf to enable boats to dock at the seafront, as well as improving the standard of the town's festive decorations.

■ CHAMPIONS: Rotary Club of Axminster president elect Bill Coltham with winners, I. Rowland, A. Thomas, P. Alderson, W. Russell and Lyme Regis club president Mark Tredwin.

Rotary golf day raises £4,000 for charities

AN AXMINSTER-BASED quartet consisting of I. Rowland, A. Thomas, P. Alderson and W. Russell triumphed at The Open Rotary Charity Golf Day at Lyme Regis Golf Club on Tuesday May 13th.

Organised by the Rotary clubs of Lyme Regis and Axminster, 33 teams of four golfers each battled it out.

Anyone was welcome to compete and among hopefuls were teams from Hix Oyster and Fish House, South West Water, Axminster Tools & Machinery and By the Bay Restaurant at Lyme Regis to mention only a few.

More than £4,000 were raised for charity, bringing the total to north of £30,000 over the eight years the event has been held.

The South West Children's Hospice, Julia's House and Dorset Children's Hospice will be the main beneficiaries, with many other local organisations and charities also to benefit.

High standard in World War One competition

AN ENTRY by Axe Valley Community College student Ben Brake won East Devon District Council's (EDDC) World War 1 outbreak commemoration competition (secondary school category).

The brief was for teams or individuals to produce work reflecting the impact of WW1 on the local communities or families in their town or village.

The entries came in different forms but were based on options of either a name on a war memorial, a poem or short story, or a combination of these.

EDDC chairman Graham Godbeer instigated the competition. He said: "My idea was to give younger members of our community the incentive to immerse themselves in the actual human impact of the war on families living in their community. I was expecting some good work but the standard of all the entries surpassed my best hopes."

"The young people really embraced the subject and produced some first class portfolios of work."

Library: 'We want county to say they made a mistake'

■ statistics will swing the game their way.

As previously reported, the group has used data provided by DCC to produce statistics showing that, based on issues per opening hour, Axminster Library is the 11th busiest library in the county.

They also say the consultation statistics failed to consider a cut in opening hours, and have produced other statistics presenting Axminster Library in a better light than DCC's consultation pack did.

When asked what he hopes to achieve at Monday's meeting, Mr Chapman said: "In an ideal world we want DCC officials to say they made a mistake and the library can stay as it is."

A definite decision will be made by DCC in September. The town council meeting will be held in the Guildhall, starting at 7.15pm.

DCC head of libraries Ciara Eastell and county councillor Roger Croad, who is the DCC Cabinet member responsible for the library service, are expected to attend.

Those unable to attend can find out more at the Support for Axminster Library Facebook page or the Twitter account at Support 4 Ax Library.

Conservatives hold charity clay shoot

THE Colyton and Colyford brach of Conservatives recently held their second annual charity clay shoot at Widworthy Barton, near Wilmington, supporting the Devon Freewheelers and St Cuthbert's Church in Widworthy.

About 100 people attended the popular event with participating shooters from right across the age range, from teens to those in their eighties.

Neil Parish, MP for Tiverton and Honiton, was among those attending. He commented: "This is a really good day out and some of the money raised benefits two very worthy local charities - Devon Freewheelers and St Cuthbert's Church in Widworthy. I am delighted the weather is much better than last year when we all got soaked."

"I would like to thank all those involved for their hard work in putting this event together, particularly Mr Thomas and Lady Alison Kremer for generously allowing us, once again, to use their land for this clay shoot. "It was a great success and a most enjoyable time was spent by all in this lovely part of the constituency."

Simon Card, chairman of Colyton and Colyford Conservatives, added: "I would like to echo Neil's thanks to Mr Thomas and Lady Alison Kremer, as well as all of our helpers on the day, including Chris Spiller and his team who provided the traps, clays and expertise, and Gareth Rule and his colleagues from AW Rule and Son Gunmaker Ltd. who set up a splendid shop inside one of the barns to provide cartridges and other shooting accessories."

"A particular thank you also to Michael Gardiner, Joy Sneath and John Tristram from Colyton and Colyford Conservatives, as well as to Joy's daughter Trudy, her partner Andrew and their family for providing the sausage, burger and bacon rolls along with tea, coffee and homemade cakes that went down so well!"

"We are grateful to many of our councillors who also supported the event. Christopher Kimber, chairman of the Axminster Area Conservatives, and his wife Barbara also helped enormously with the administration and raffle."

"We raised several hundred pounds for our chosen charities and some of the money raised will also be going to the Tiverton and Honiton Conservatives."

Andy Moon, a well-known and highly successful West Country clay shooter, won first prize with a magnificent score of 44 out of 50.

BT must 'move fast' to connect rural areas

BUSINESSES operating from villages around Honiton need high-speed broadband "more than anything" and BT must "move fast" to deliver it, Honiton MP Neil Parish has said.

Addressing the town's traders at a recent breakfast meeting, Mr Parish said the government had been experiencing "real problems" while working with the national telecommunications company to roll-out the fibre-optic service, but insisted they would continue to be pressed.

Mr Parish said: "Broadband is proving difficult to get out into the rural villages and we are still going to have some hard-to-reach places - there may not be a fibre-optic solution to the problem in these places."

"But this is what businesses need more than anything and it is an issue that needs to be sorted."

The Connecting Devon and Somerset initiative - a multi-million-pound partnership between local councils, BT and the government's Superfast Britain programme - has been working to bring rural communities up to speed and is targeting 90 per cent of homes and businesses across the two counties to be connected by the end of 2016.

More than 75,000 businesses and households in Devon and Somerset have no or very slow access and nine out of 10 businesses across the two counties have said that poor connectivity would threaten their survival and growth.

Mr Parish has been campaigning for a rollout of high-speed broadband to rural areas since his election in 2010.

He added: "There is nothing more frustrating than not being able to get the internet - I am very well aware of it."

"We (the government) have put in £60million for Devon and Somerset and we need to know where BT are targeting."

"They must tell us what they are doing and why they can or cannot do it in a certain area. They have got to move fast."

Auction for air ambulance trust

WELL-KNOWN auctioneer Graham Barton will play a key role during a fundraiser for the Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT) on Saturday, June 7th.

DAAT volunteers Gillian and Mike Sexton, who service 70 collection boxes in the Sid Valley and Ottery St Mary areas, are organising the fundraiser at Exeter Golf and Country Club, which will feature an auction, barbecue, buffet, raffle and live music. Doors open at 7pm and tickets are £17.50.

Gillian said: "The reason we support this charity is that our eldest grandson, Callum, had to be airlifted by an air ambulance shortly after his home birth when he developed breathing problems."

"After spending the day in hospital undergoing tests he was given a clean bill of health and allowed back home but it was, nonetheless, a very worrying time for all the family."

First-time author's science fiction tale

A RAYMONDS Hill man has written his first book, more than a quarter of a century after first getting the idea. But Peter Woodhart put in a good shift when writing science fiction novel iO, which came to almost 500 pages.

Mr Woodhart said: "I first had the idea for the story of the book more than 25 years ago but life and my career got in the way. I retired completely about four years ago and thought I'd finally try to set the story down."

"Over the years I've become quite disillusioned with the weak story-lines in most science fiction films and books. I wanted to write a science fiction story that was grounded in reality and I think iO does that."

The story is set in 2040 when a 10-year-old boy discovers something mysterious buried under a hill close to his house in rural England.

His parents and two sisters investigate, but the hill will not reveal its four million-year-old secret, and the boy's mother has a secret of her own.

The book is available as a paperback or e-book on Amazon.

Residents urged to play a part in town's new neighbourhood plan

by Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER residents are asked to take an active part in the creation of the town's Neighbourhood Plan.

Neighbourhood Planning is a result of The Localism Act, and local communities are encouraged to produce a Neighbourhood Plan which, if it meets certain criteria, would become part of the Local Plan.

As such, it would carry weight in planning decisions affecting the neighbourhood/locality in question.

But before being approved, each plan would be subject to an independent examination and local referendum.

Axminster Town Council has successfully applied to designate the whole parish as a Neighbourhood Plan area. The next step is to apply for funding (£7,000) from government body My Community Rights to help pay for associated costs with the initial stages.

Although the application was in the name of the town council, it is led by Axminster Community Enterprise (ACE), which produced Vision of Axminster (Local Plan) in 2008.

Town, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding is a member of both the town council and ACE.

He said that a number of focus groups are currently being formed, covering subjects like housing, transport and traffic management, tourism and leisure, town centre and retail, built heritage economy and employment, natural environment.

Members of the public are encouraged to get involved, and Mr Moulding said: "It is not just a talking shop, we have a lot of work to do."

The aim is to complete the plan in late 2015 and have it formally approved in early 2016.

Anyone interested in getting involved is asked to contact the town council for more information.

Performing at national youth festival

THE string orchestra at St Mary's Catholic Primary School in Axminster has been invited to perform at National Music for Youth Festival in Birmingham on Wednesday, July 9th.

The invitation follows a successful performance at the recent Music for Youth Regional Festival in Taunton.

Members of the St Mary's orchestra (pictured) will be performing at Symphony Hall alongside other primary schools from across the UK.

A St Mary's spokesperson said: "Children as young as six years old are in the string orchestra, in addition to children who have been learning their instrument for up to four years."

"This is an outstanding achievement for all involved and is a true reflection of the children's talents and the excellent teaching of music at St Mary's."

Specialist Dementia Care in Exmouth & Devon

Give Your loved One The Gift Of A Fulfilling Life At Rose Lodge Care Home

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Table for pupils to read outdoors

Axminster Primary School has taken delivery of an outdoor reading table, complete with seats.

A break time fundraising stall, the takings from a quiz night and a carol singing 'appearance fee' paid for the new furniture.

The photo shows pupils Harriet, Paige, Grace, Evie, Henry and Amelia making good use of the table.

AN AXMINSTER man has been busy filling pannier bags with bricks before cycling long distances several times.

Steve Norman and cycling partner Shane Johnston (from Exeter) have used the extra load to prepare themselves for challenging climbs during their forthcoming ride from Venice to England.

As previously reported, the ride will be in aid of FORCE Cancer Charity.

Steve lost his partner, Shirley, to cancer two years ago, but received a huge amount of help and support from FORCE.

They will travel to Italy on Sunday (June 8th) and plan to be back three weeks later to take part in the Annual FORCE Century Cycle Challenge (100 mile or 100 km rides starting and finishing at Topsham Rugby Club).

They have been busy fundraising by taking their turbo trainers to shopping areas in Exmouth and Exeter, raising a total of £400 from the two events.

When asked if he is ready for the challenge, Steve said: "Hopefully, fingers crossed."

"We have done over 200 miles a week for the last month, some of the rides with bricks in the pannier bags."

Anyone wishing to sponsor the ride can do so online at <http://thenelly2014.wordpress.com>

French family trying to trace WW2 soldier from Axminster

by Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A FRENCH family is trying to find out what happened to a World War Two soldier from Axminster.

Hervé Willemand, from Blangy-sur-Ternoise, has enlisted the help of Axminster Library in trying to trace the soldier.

M. Willemand said: "Going through some family documents, I came across a letter written in English dated January 17th, 1945."

"A Mrs Newbery from Axminster in England was writing to thank my aunt, Yvonne Willemand, who was in the Red Cross at the time."

"Towards the end of 1944, after the area was liberated she took care of a British soldier called Robert Newbery, the son of the lady who subsequently wrote the letter to my aunt."

"Do you know what happened to Robert Newbery after he was nursed by my aunt all those years ago?"

"I would be very interested in knowing what happened to him after he left Blangy and also when the war was over."

"Did he survive the war, I wonder, and is there any chance that he might still be alive?"

"I would be very grateful for any information."

Sarah Jones of Axminster Library, said: "We have had the poster up in the library and it has generated a lot of interest but Robert still hasn't been found."

Anyone with information is asked to contact the library or e-mailing Hervé Willemand at willemand@wanadoo.fr or Siobhan Stevens at siobhanazincourt@aol.com

GP is retiring after 30 years

AN AXMINSTER GP has held his last surgery after more than 30 years in town.

It will not be a clean break for Dr James Vann, though, as he will remain involved with Axminster Medical Practice until he is formally retired in November.

In that time he hopes to help broker a favourable resolution to the situation at Axminster Hospital.

As previously reported, the 10 remaining in beds at the hospital are under review and the relevant NHS bodies are looking at the future provision of community hospitals, community nursing and urgent care services.

Dr Vann, who saw his last patient on Friday, May 23rd, has been a vocal participant in the debate and done battle with the NHS bodies involved.

When asked if he is retiring when there is unfinished business, he said: "I am owed six months of sabbatical time but will be part of the practice until November."

"I will spend time to see what we can do about the hospital in that time."

In retirement he also hopes to spend more time tending to his small-holding on the outskirts of Axminster and make more use of his sailing boat in Greece.

■ CAPTAIN VANN: Dr James Vann hopes to sail more when retired

Having started working life as a bio-chemist, he changed career path and trained to become a GP.

He qualified in London and arrived in Axminster via London and Gloucester in 1981.

Dr Vann said: "The job was advertised and we came down for an interview."

"We liked it and they liked me, so it worked."

Over the last few weeks he has introduced his patients to his successor, Dr James Ashby, who will become a practice partner in November.

Looking back, Dr Vann said: "I feel very lucky to have worked in the Axminster practice."

"I feel proud that in Axminster we have kept the balance of good personal GP practice, while at the same time keeping abreast of modern medicine."

Where's Wally is on again

St MARY'S Primary School PTFA and Archway Bookshop will repeat last summer's Wally search activities in Axminster.

A Spot The Wally in the Window search will run all this week until Saturday (June 7th) with the real Wally hiding in the town on the Saturday.

Entry forms are available from The Sweet Shop and Archway Book Shop and a prize draw will be held at 1pm on Saturday, June 7th.

About 100 families took part last year.

Theft of door

AXMINSTER police would like to hear from anyone who saw someone carrying a door in or around Lyme Close on Wednesday, May 21st.

The appeal was issued after a door was stolen from a house there. The theft happened between 7.30am and 4.30pm.

A police spokesperson said: "A wooden double-glazed door had been left propped up against a semi-detached house."

"The offender gained access to the garden by climbing over a three-foot high fence."

"Police are keen to hear from anyone who may have seen someone carrying a door in the area or has any information that could help enquiries."

Memorial bench plan for Chris

A MEMORIAL seat is to be placed in Seaton town centre to commemorate the life of local trader and community worker Chris Byrne-Jones.

A proposition that Seaton Town Council should dedicate a seat at Cliff Field Gardens in memory of Mr Byrne-Jones, who died recently, was tabled at last week's full council meeting.

During the public question time, local businessman Ian Barradale commended the decision by the council but suggested that the seat should be placed in the town centre where Mr Byrne-Jones was a familiar figure and not at the Cliff Field Gardens.

The council deferred their decision for an alternative site for the seat to be found.

All set for the Party in the Park

ORGANISERS say Seaton's Party in the Park will be 'bigger and better' on Sunday, June 8th.

Hosted by Christians Together in Seaton, and free to attend, the event will be based at and around the Underfleet recreational ground from 2pm-6pm.

The skate, scooter and BMX jam has 'the biggest prize fund yet' and will be overseen by experienced event director and Exeter-based The Boarding House owner Tim Ruck.

Mr Ruck said: "We're very excited to be involved in this great event, and are looking forward to a great competition with some awesome prizes."

"Entry to the comp is on the day from 1.30pm and there will be events for all ages."

The Reverend Simon d'Albertanson added: "Also bigger this year is the stage, with several local bands performing throughout the afternoon."

"On the opposite side of the field will be our six-element bouncy castle village including sumo suits, an assault course and a kids' soft play."

A surplus of baked beans has necessitated the staging of an exchange programme.

Foodbank in Seaton chairman Hugh Rose explained: "We're so grateful for all the donations of food we receive, but at the moment we have loads of baked beans but are short of tinned meat, pasta sauces and UHT milk, so if people want to bring those items we'd be happy to swap them on the day for cans of baked beans to the same value."

Favourites from last year will return, including the Royal British Legion, Rock Solid's Strawberry Bootlace, After Eight Time Trials and Polly Anderson and her team from East Devon District Council with circus skills.

A range of craft, plant and cake stalls will also be trading at around 5pm.

The event will conclude with a special Songs of Praise event including live music – come and join in the fun. The Reverend d'Albertanson concluded: "We are grateful for the generous support of Axe Valley Runners, SOS Scaffolding Honiton, Seaton Town Council and Seaton Town Development Team for making this event possible."

FORTIFIED with a sumptuous cooked breakfast from fellow Rotarians, Val & Viv Bates and long distance walker David Harvey took another step on his charity challenge along the South West Coastal Path.

Seaton & District vice president Viv and his wife Val had kindly offered overnight accommodation in their Beer home to Harvey on his quest to complete the 630 miles from Minehead to Poole in 43 days.

President Jean Davies, past president Les Andrews and the Rotary Club's community and welfare officer the Reverend Canon John Holder and his wife Shirley were also present as they handed over a cheque to Harvey, who is raising money for Hospiscare, Children's Hospice South West and Shelterbox.

Then with his rucksack loaded Harvey was off on his next stage into Dorset.

"I walked from Budleigh Salterton to Sidmouth yesterday and that was tough," said Harvey.

"I though the hardest part, which was between Hartland Quay and Bude in Cornwall with 10 successive big ups and downs, was behind me but there were some pretty tough climbs between Sidmouth and Beer."

"I was quite surprised at how aggressive this part was but I am really enjoying it."

Various Rotary clubs along the route have provided over half of Harvey's overnight accommodation requests and the remainder he is paying out of his own pocket.

"All the money that is donated will go towards the three charities," added 63-year-old Harvey, who is a former soldier and retired policeman living in Tiverton.

"I have had great support from the Rotary and also people have been very generous along the way."

Amazingly Harvey reports no problems with blisters but not surprisingly admits to sore and tired free – and baggy shorts!

"I was fit and 13 stones before I started this walk," said Harvey.

"Now I am very fit and 12 stones and need a belt to keep up my shorts!"

Wild West mystery a real hit

IT WAS back to the Wild West when Axmouth Children's Theatre TWO 2011 performed its latest work by local script writer Malcolm Henty.

'Mama, Don't Let You Babes Grow Up To Be Cow-boys' is a murder mystery set in the town of Hicksville.

Mr Henty said: "The idea was to have as little rehearsal as possible so that the cast had to read from scripts much as you would do if you held a murder mystery at home. The stage was also set 'in the round' so the audience became an extension of the Silver Bullet Saloon where the action took place.

"This was a totally unique experience for the kids being so close up to the audience, but they all coped very well, especially with their accents, and judging from the laughter everyone else seemed to enjoy it as well.

"The costumes were all excellent and the clues and props made the scene believable. Everyone played their parts but Stanzi Mai Carpenter, who played Sheriff Doc Holliday in what was probably to be her last performance with the group, was excellent."

Work begins on new homes

A DEVELOPER has fenced off an area around Harbour Road to start construction of more than 200 homes.

Bovis Homes will build 222 homes on the site and its South West technical director, Malcolm Gilmore, said: "Preparatory works are set to begin. The safety of the public is always our primary focus at such stages in our projects, and we would ask all people in the area, especially children, to pay careful attention to the signage around the site.

"Building sites can be dangerous places if the proper behaviours aren't followed, and certainly aren't playgrounds, so we would greatly appreciate the co-operation of everyone who may be in the vicinity of the site during this pre-construction phase."

The new development will feature a mix of homes, from two-bed apartments to four-bed family houses.

A Bovis spokesperson added: "As well as the new homes, Bovis Homes will be investing more than £450,000 into local facilities in Seaton as part of the planning agreement to boost sport, transport, art and education in the town."

Morris dancers scare dog

THE Great Western Morris group from Exeter wish to apologise to the woman who lost her dog in the woods between Seaton and Beer on the afternoon of Sunday, May 25th

More than 80 Morris dancers were processing down the hill through the woods, when the lady's dog was suddenly spooked by all the noise of the bells and music and ran off.

The dog was later spotted by one of the dancers; the owner was informed and she duly recovered her dog. All were relieved that it had suffered no harm.

Great Western were very pleased to see the owner and dog reunited.

A spokesman from Great Western Morris reassured local residents and dog owners that, in future, there will be warning notices put up to be aware of loose Morris dancers travelling on paths through the woods, and to keep all pets on a lead to ensure no mishaps.

Once again Great Western Morris apologise to the owner for any upset and stress caused by this incident.

Further information about the Morris group can be found at www.great-western.org.uk

Arada take over the Jurassic Coast

LEADING stove manufacturer, Arada Stoves, took over the Jurassic Coast in vintage style when they held their 2014 dealer event.

Held last week, the Axminster based Stove Company played host to more than twenty of their distributors by holding a classic car drive along the coast with scenic views and stops along the way.

Including a glossy red Morris Minor Convertible, a shiny VW Beetle, a rare Jensen Interceptor and a stylish Jag E-type, the ten classic cars, many of them open-top, were hired for the special event with guests coming from as far as Jersey, the Highlands and even Northern Ireland to grab a chance at getting behind the wheel.

The first stop was Felicity's Farmshop, Morcombelake where the Arada mobile showroom, complete with brand new livery was waiting alongside some much needed breakfast baps.

Getting the chance to drive a variety of the cars throughout the day, the visitors completed their vintage car event in stages, stopping at various beauty hot spots on route to swap vehicles. The route included Abbotsbury Hill with its impressive views of the Dorset coast, West Bexington Beach, lunch at The Greyhound Inn situated within the pretty village of Sydling St Nicholas and the rolling green hills passing Hardy's Monument.

Having finally got the hang of driving their vintage vehicles, the group arrived to Moonfleet Manor, near Weymouth for the evening where they had little time to rest before their next challenge-firewalking.

Ran by twice world record holder, Scott Bell of UK Firewalk, the team building exercise tested the nerves of even the bravest guests and Arada staff members. Walking the 15 foot bed of glowing hot coals, which sizzled at more than 600 degrees celcius; one by one, the group completed the challenge cheered on by the crowds before collecting a certificate for their boldness.

Commercial director, Mark Brettell was thrilled with the success of the event and said: "We at Arada are really pleased with the success of our vintage car event particularly as this was the first event we have held on this scale.

"We would like to thank everyone who contributed for their help and support; particularly the local establishments who went out of their way to ensure our guests were comfortable.

"Both the classic car driving and the firewalking was an excellent way for our guests to get to know each other whilst building relationships and everyone went away with a smile!"

The event concluded with one last drive back along the coast to Arada, where the group were given a tour of Arada's factory and Global Distribution Centre and an insight into the range of exciting new products due to be launched within the next month.

▲ FEELING HOT, HOT, HOT - The special event ended with the biggest challenge of all - walking 15 feet on a bed of hot coals with UK Firewalk. The group pose with their certificates after the event.

Minute's silence for much-loved member of Phoenix Ladies Club

MORE than 30 members of Axminster Phoenix Ladies Club stood for a minute's silence in memory of much-loved member Ida Shepherd, who had passed away since their last meeting in April.

A number of members attended her funeral at the Methodist Church and a donation in memory of Ida was given to the Hospice.

During the meeting, the chairman confirmed that the outing to Powderham Castle on June 25th was fully booked.

As on previous occasions, Phoenix members had been invited to the Royal British Legion Women's Section Garden Party on July 11th at the chairman's home.

Making a welcome return to the Phoenix Ladies Club recently, Val Sutherland gave an entertaining talk on the topic "Nice Girls Should Never Do..." Based on her years as a professional actress, members learnt that Val had trained at the same Drama School as Julie Walters and that David Threlfall was in the same year.

During her time in repertory theatre when she toured the country, she trekked to remote areas to practise monologues in solitude and had to adjust to changing costumes in the wings with the rest of the troupe. Val also appeared in pantomime, cabaret, music hall and on television, in particular in the long-running series "Crossroads".

Members learnt she also became a silver service waitress during slack times and worked as a magician's assistant when she experienced stage fright for the first time – hardly surprising at the thought of being sawn in half – with a nightly performance in a different location every day.

To quote Val "Nice Girls Should Never Do... one night stands!" Two amusing monologues brought the talk to a close.

Next meeting is on June 11th at the United Reformed Church Hall at 2.30pm, when the guest speaker, Francis Watson, will talk about "Collecting Mother of Pearl". Visitors always welcome.

Speakers share little known Devon spots with U3A group

THE speakers after the annual general meeting of Seaton U3A were Hilary Bradt and Janice Booth, who gave members a good-humoured and entertaining talk about some interesting but little known sites in Devon.

They started with a picture quiz on screen, asking members to identify the 15 places depicted.

Then Hilary and Janice took it in turns to describe the subjects of the slides, which ranged from the elegance of Burgh Island Hotel to the cow in the doorway at the Royal William Yard in Plymouth Dockyard, where the butchers worked ready for the victualling of Royal Navy ships.

ships.

More pictures and stories introduced members to the eminently visitable tourist spots the speakers included. More can be found about these and more in the book "Slow Travel in South Devon and Dartmoor", the Bradt Guide published by Hilary and Janice. Two more guides to other parts of Devon will follow later.

There are now 16 subject groups in Seaton U3A with a total of 120 members, so there is plenty of choice for those considering joining.

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

THE monthly meeting and annual general meeting of Seaton WI was held on Tuesday, May 20th at the Methodist Church Hall, Seaton.

President Ann Attridge welcomed 17 members and two visitors to the meeting. They then sang "Jerusalem" accompanied by Mary Fone.

Ann introduced Ann Bowman, WI advisor, who had joined members to oversee their annual meeting. The 2014 resolution of National Federation of WIs was discussed after Denise England gave a very informative overview on the subject concerning organ donation. The vote in favour of the resolution was carried unanimously.

The Flower of the Month competition for 2013/2014 was won by Zelma Lindsay Smith and the Monthly Competition Cup for 2013/2014 by Aimee Guard.

After tea and cake was served, the annual meeting began. The finance statement was explained by treasurer Jan and secretary Aimee gave a detailed report on the past year's numerous and enjoyable meetings and events. President Ann thanked the committee and other members for their support and contribution to the success of Seaton WI. Ann also gave a special thank you to Mary Fone, who is stepping down from committee after 12 years. She was presented with flowers and chocolates.

Other members of the committee were re-elected and joined by Gwynydd Brazendale, including Ann who was then re-elected as president. Heather Marraner thanked Ann on behalf of all members for her work as president.

The Jean Allsopp Cup for the best floral arrangement was awarded to Aimee and the Home Economics Cup for six cupcakes awarded to Heather Marraner.

Visitors and new members are always welcome at meetings held on the third Tuesday of each month at Methodist Church Hall.

KILMINGTON

KILMINGTON WI chairman Joy Churchill welcomed members and Anne Bowden, WI Adviser, to their latest meeting.

The minutes were read and there were no matters arising from these. Programmes were ordered for the craft and skills section of County WI, which meets in the cricket pavilion on the first Monday of the month to which all members are welcome. Next year's calendars were on show and orders taken.

Anne Widdecome is to speak at Uplyme WI on July 9th and several members wished to go. The group meeting is to be at All Saints when Vet Michael Shaw will speak.

The National federation of WIs resolution about increasing organ donation was discussed and it was unanimously decision to support the resolution.

The competition was won by Joy with Christine second. Flower of the Month was a tie between Joy and Phyllis.

There followed the presentation of the financial report, which was adopted. The chairman thanked everyone for their hard work during the year.

On June 12th Colin Dean will talk about being "A Bobby on the Beat" in the 1960s. The competition will be for an amusing anecdote on meeting a policeman in the 1960s in no more than 50 words.

ALL SAINTS & DISTRICT

"I'VE been doing this job for 50 years and still get a thrill from it."

That is what Pulman's View editor Philip Evans told All Saints & District WI at their last meeting, and from the look on his face you knew it was true.

His talk was entitled "From Southleigh to Soweto" and Philip told members that his career in journalism had taken him all over the world.

The members and their visitors heard how, at the age of 16 he obtained his first job as a journalist, or "cub reporter" as he was known. In his first week, he covered a dreadful accident at the London Inn in Lyme Regis, when a runaway lorry careered into the pub killing a number of people. The following Tuesday he covered the story of another fatality in Payhembury and, on the Wednesday, there was an awful fire at a campsite.

It was at this point his mother urged him to get himself "a proper job". He didn't heed her advice and worked his way up the journalistic ladder, taking him to London and for a time, Johannesburg.

Philip told members about some very sad stories and some very funny ones. Changes in technology had changed the way a paper was put together, taking the cost of creating a page from £54 down to £4 per page.

Times have changed but, as he was keen to point out, reporting a story hasn't.

Harbour Road hotel was never really in the plans

■ ARE we the public gullible or what? Many readers no doubt will tell us "I told you so".

To think that the long-awaited proposed new hotel, all part of the special regeneration scheme for the old Lyme Bay Holiday Park site in Seaton, is now to become retirement flats is something really hard to grasp.

Tourism in our wonderful part of Devon is so much in need of a boost and extra beds and amenities are essential commodities to help this industry go forward.

After having spent a few days reflecting on your article, I have perhaps cynically come to the conclusion that an hotel was never really in the plans, for those of you who studied the proposed drawings will have wondered who would want to stay in a hotel bordering on Harbour Road which had only a few amenities. In the design, there was virtually no desirable outlook, no gardens, no tennis court, no swimming pool, no putting green and hardly enough car parking space to accommodate the 100 beds. The design was really for retirement flats right from the word go.

This, I believe, was another example of Tesco pulling its might and stamping all over East Devon District Council, and now they are no doubt laughing their heads off since the residents of these 43 retirement flats will all be shopping at you know where!

Threatened library is 'breath of fresh air'

■ IN an age where faceless communication is increasingly popular and automated phone response is the norm. Axminster Library is a breath of fresh air.

My 86-year-old mother has been using this library for the past 18 years and it has become an integral part of her life.

She is welcomed by name and, as they know her preferred reading genre, they are able to regularly recommend good reads.

The reported number of library users may not be accurate as I am sure there are many who, like my mother, borrow books for the whole family – the figures may actually only represent one fifth of real users.

The service afforded by this library is second to none and is a real part of the character of the town. A lot is lost by relocating services to larger towns and is damaging to a community.

Only days ago The Daily Telegraph carried a story of how shockingly the elderly are treated, with some not speaking to another human being for a whole week. Without the interpersonal skills, such as those so excellently employed by the staff of Axminster Library, the epidemic of loneliness is just around the corner.

To shut this library in Axminster would mean that my mother, and others like her, will be unable to use a library; buses are not an option with her disabilities.

With a mainline route into London, Axminster should not be treated as an arm of Seaton, but as an entity in its own right.

People of Axminster – do not let this town become as characterless as an answer machine or like an hotel room where you just come back to sleep.

TRISH WARWICK,

Hold Tesco to their promise!

■ WHAT a let down for Seaton again by Tesco!

Firstly, they closed the holiday camp down, filled our flood plain with sand, causing flooding in Harbour Road, the Axe Estuary and tramway.

Tesco then persuaded East Devon District Council that they had overspent on bringing in the sand, and could no longer provide funds to build any affordable homes for our younger generation. Housing numbers then dropped from 360 to 222 because they cannot build terrace or three storey houses on sand, only executive type houses.

Now we hear that the hotel complex has gone and we are to have even more older peoples' apartments, with the compliments of McCarthy & Stone.

Market barber 'slap in the face' for high street

■ I NOTE that Honiton's street market has a new "attraction" – a barber.

Whilst appreciating and realising that Honiton Town Council has a duty to do all it can to make the moribund street market more attractive, I cannot help feeling that the decision to allow this market barber to ply his trade is a slap in the face for Honiton's high street hairdressers.

I note that the market barber is undercutting our well-established local barbers by several pounds a

A major hotel in Seaton is a must. With the new Jurassic Coast Centre attracting visitors, plus the Grizly, Wiscombe Hill Climb (six weekends a year), Pecorama, Lyme Regis only a few miles away and family visitors coming to visit parents and grandparents, there is plenty of scope for an hotel.

Come on East Devon district councillors, hold Tesco to their original promise... they have broken all the others!

An hotel is a must!

COUNCILLOR HOWARD WEST,

head (no overheads).

The other concern is – has this market barber public liability insurance? What facilities has he for sterilising his instruments?

Is this a ploy, I wonder, to make the street market more "visitable" at any price?

Memory cafe collection raises £590

■ THE Sid Valley Memory Cafe, a charity that helps carers and their loved ones who have all forms of memory problems, held its first street collection on Saturday, May 17th.

The members were bowled over by the generosity of the people of Sidmouth and the visitors to the town. We raised a magnificent total of £590, which will go to developing still further the good work carried out by the volunteers who run the cafe every Wednesday from 2.15pm at Twyford House, Coburg Road.

Thank you so much.

ON Sunday 1st June, residents, staff and guests thoroughly enjoyed the 'Great Staff' Open Day at Koppers Care Home in Kilminster. The afternoon tea party was organised to celebrate The Koppers winning an award for being a top recommended care home in the South West.

The home came 8th out of 2,370 homes in the South West. The top twenty South West homes received an award from online directory and industry website carehome.co.uk

The award was based on the home's online recommendations from their residents plus friends and relatives of residents.

Owner of The Koppers, Vivian Baksh told carehome.co.uk: "It was wonderful to hear the news that we have won the award of being the best 8th home in the south west. It has boosted the morale of the home and given the staff a sense of pride as they feel their dedication and hard work have been recognised and rewarded. Here at The Koppers, our core values enable us to offer a home tailored to individual need.

"The team at The Koppers are dedicated, caring, well-trained and committed in providing the best possible care to our residents.

Director of carehome.co.uk Davina Ludlow said: "We felt the best people to rate a care home were the people who really know its ins and outs, its residents and their families.

"The Koppers has proved that it provides a great service and we'd like to congratulate them on being a top recommended home in the South West! It's a brilliant achievement to be recognised for your hard work but particularly from the people who you work hard for.

"The care home will be recognised on our website as a top rated home and will receive a certificate from us.

● NEIL Parish MP visited Koppers on Tuesday 27th May. Neil was impressed with the standard of care that is provided to the residents who suffer from different types of dementia and commented on the happy environment.

Thank you to all who contributed

Owner Vivian Baksh took the opportunity to say a few words of thanks at Sunday's Open Day to all who contributed to the well-deserved award.

She said: "Thank you to all for attending and helping us celebrate our proud moment, it really is such a privilege and a morale booster to receive such recognition for what we do here at Koppers. We are also here to celebrate the 'Great Staff Day' in association with Devon quality Kite Mark, which promote quality dementia care and support in nursing and residential homes in Devon.

"Recently the care industry has received negative reports on bad practices but our small residential home in Kilminster has won recognition of our hard work. I would like to congratulate the staff and say a big thank you and well done to all. This includes not just those staff members based at Koppers but also the outside help we receive.

"Many people provide vital and appreciated services to our home; these include our hairdresser Karen, Juells who comes to support the residents with activities. Chiropodist Lynn, the optician, the Axe Valley visiting team who come in on a voluntary basis to provide one to one and group support to enhance the residents life in a personal way.

"I would also like to thank Lucy who comes in every week to spend time supporting the residents with activities, chatting to them. Lucy you are a ray of sunshine with a big smile and always full of laughter. Last but not least the multi-disciplinary team which includes our local GP, Psychiatrist, CPN, social worker and district nurses.

"Thank you for your support. Also thank you to our new members of staff, some have had very senior positions in other settings. Thank you for bringing lots of new ideas and your experiences to enhance our standard of care for residents.

"Finally I would like to say a personal thank you to Kelly for organising our celebratory afternoon tea party to highlight our award and indeed great staff. I'd like to thank you for all your continued support and commitment to The Koppers and to me personally. To have you working alongside me for over 20 years as a colleague and friend is a privilege."

Testimonials from relatives of residents

MY DAD suffers with advanced Alzheimers he moved into Koppers 2 months ago after a 2 month period in hospital. In the general hospital he reached the stage where he was very aggressive at times and could not communicate at all. He spent a month in the specialist Franklin hospital in Exeter and they did an amazing job of stabilising his behaviour. The Koppers have maintained this stability and I can say that my dad is now a contented man with a quality of life and a fair degree of awareness. The owner/manager Vivian, is a lovely, lively, caring person and she hand picks and trains her staff. The staff are attentive, respectful and treat residents as individuals. My dad is still difficult with personal care, but they are sensitive and practical in dealing with this. The staff never hassle the residents and they act as though they have all the time in the world. I was devastated when I had to place my dad in a care home (he had lived with me and my family for years). Now I wish I had done it earlier.

Daughter of resident

THERE is always a warm welcome when we arrive. I know my wife is very happy and has peace of mind that her mother is cared for in the way she is. The staff are very caring and take great interest in the wellbeing of the residents. The owner makes every effort to make the home a happy and safe environment.

Son-in-law of resident

The care my mother gets in Koppers is the very best. It is a very happy place. After visiting I always feel at ease that my mother is content and comfortable. The staff do a brilliant job, they work very hard to ensure that all the residents are having their needs met. Koppers is very clean and the décor is very warming. I cannot speak highly enough about Koppers care home.

Daughter of resident

I CERTAINLY highly recommend this care home due to its continued excellent management and nursing care of an outstanding level at all times, with all staff fully aware of all the residents' individual problems and care given immaculately to suit each resident's personal needs and safety ensured at all times. The staff and management are friendly, professional and highly dedicated to their work. I couldn't be happier to have my mother cared for at this care home, whom is the happiest I have known her with her demanding and difficult state of health. I thank the management and staff for the peace of mind of knowing my mother could not receive a higher standard of care.

Daughter of resident

It is good seeing my Mum so happy and relaxed when visiting her at the Koppers. As a family we are so pleased we found this home for our mother. It certainly provides the help she needs to help cope with Vascular Dementia.

This is a first for East Devon following successful earlier meetings in North Devon and South Devon. We look forward to welcoming visitors from other parts of East Devon as we share the day.

On Saturday 21st and Sunday 22nd there will be a stall in the Spirit of Community Tent at the Axe Valley Festival. We hope to greet many visitors and local folk there.

Then on Wednesday, June 25th there will be the bi-monthly prayer meeting at Purzebrook Chapel at 7:30pm. It was good to welcome the retired Bishop of Cuttack, CNI, India and wife for a brief visit to the Job Club and Loughwood Meeting House in Dalwood.

Following further votes by Diocesan Synods, which most recently included the Diocese of Chichester, it now seems likely that Women Bishops may be fast tracked into the House of Lords in order to give effect to the proposals. More details later.

Local girl Chloe Stratta will be presenting an evening of 'Songs for a Summer's Evening' at 7:30 pm on Saturday, June 7th in Uplyme Church.

Chloe will be joined by two exciting young singers from Manchester, Rhiannon Doogan (mezzo soprano) and James Berry (baritone), performing oratorio, operatic arias and art song in works by Mozart, Handel, Fauré and Schubert. Tickets are £10 on the door (children free).

On Sunday, June 8th at Colyton Church, there will be popular classical music by local musicians, led by Nicholas Brown from 7pm. Tickets are £9 (children free) from the Little Shop. Colyton, Archway Bookshop, Axminster and on the door.

Again in June, from Wednesday 19th to Sunday 22nd, there will be a flower festival at St Andrew's, Colyton with bridal flowers and fashion being the theme. Honiton Lace wedding veils will be on view.

Every evening at 7:30pm there will be concerts in church at £6 each but it only costs £15 for a festival ticket for all three. Under 16s free. Tickets are available in advance from Colyton Pharmacy. The exhibition ends with a Thanksgiving Service in church at 6:30pm.

And still in June, on Thursday 5th the Minster Church at Axminster offers a Lunchtime Concert at 12:30pm with 'The Old Crooner'. Admission is free and light lunches will be available.

Branscombe Church has the first Songs of Praise on the beach at 6pm on June 8th. Fish suppers are on offer - telephone 01297 680277.

There is a church concert on Saturday, June 14th at 7:30pm

Just as the Anglican Church is making progress over the making of women bishops, the same church is in touch with Methodist Churches regarding the appointment of Methodist presbyters to Church of England posts and the creation of a Methodist Bishop in due course. These moves are awaited as an outcome of the Anglo-Methodist Covenant signed in 2003.

At the same time the Pope has been approached by some of his Italian priests to end the Catholic Church's ban on being celibate. A reply is awaited.

All Sorts – the Ottery family service – went off with a real buzz, but the May Fair was dogged by rain and wet. Thanks to those who came despite the weather.

Knightstone Manor Flower Festival is on from June 5th – 7th, featuring lovely arrays in a beautiful setting. The Mothers' Union meets in the parish church on June 10th at 2:30pm – visitors are welcome.

'A Perfect Day' is due on June 29th at the Land of Canaan at 11am, there is no 9:30am service but there is a BBQ. Andrew Goddall is set to speak for the Otter Vale Mission community.

As we move from Eastertide in the church calendar, to Pentecost, the feast of the Ascension is kept on the days between in preparation for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost / Whit Sunday.

Fr Michael Koppell offers a reflection on Ascensiontide to close: It all ended in the only way it could. We're about to reach the last of the cycle of great feasts which celebrate the key events of our Lord's earthly life – Christmas, Epiphany, Easter and now Ascension.

The Ascension, was the final revelation of the glory our Lord shares with the Father. And it was a triumph, not just for him, but for us too. Because it was the whole Christ, God and man, who ascended into heaven.

Jesus took our human nature up with him, ensuring that it would never again be separated from God.

And since Christ is the Head of the Body of which we're members, we rightly see in his Ascension the promise of our own final destiny.

JASON Chapman is an author and illustrator living in Axminster. For over ten years now, he has been drawing cats and dogs for Battersea Dogs and Cats Home's marketing, communications and fundraising departments. He also works for the NSPCC illustrating 'Letters from Santa', the charity's very successful Christmas campaign, which last year raised £1.8 million. He is also involved in the newly-formed pressure group trying to stop the proposed downgrading of Axminster Library.

Where were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in Cambridge and moved up to Bradford at the age of four and grew up there. Bradfordians are very proud people and though I don't get back there as much as I'd like to see family, it's a place close to my heart and I'm a Bradford City fan. Holidays were often the 150 mile journey south down the A1 to Cambridge to visit my grandmother. The contrast between the North and South has always fascinated me and maybe given me a slightly wider perspective of where we live.

Which was your dream job when at school?

As far back as I can remember, I've always known I wanted to do art in one form or another. I have an early memory of watching my uncle Tony, an engineer, draw a Spitfire and Concorde.

Watching someone create a good drawing made some kind of impact on me and my family have always encouraged me which is so important as a child. I feel very lucky doing a 'job' I enjoy so much.

What was your favourite subject at school?

Art. Not much surprise there. I also enjoyed design and technology and PE as long as we were playing football.

What types of books do you read?

I read as much of everything as I can. At school I spent most of my time avoiding reading. It terrified me, so the art room became a kind of sanctuary. Thankfully today there is much more awareness and understanding, encouraging boys to enjoy books and stories and read aloud.

Time is so precious – as an adult it's not always easy to find the time to lose yourself in a book which is why it is so important for children to learn to enjoy books at a young age. My 12-year-old son has probably read more books in his young reading life so far than I've read in mine! As well as parental encouragement, our librarians have been fantastic in encouraging my children and every child who walks into Axminster library, to read, play, learn and sing!

What makes you happy?

Spending time with my family and seeing my children grow. Walking, cycling, running, drawing, painting, writing. Playing football. Watching football. Bradford City winning, Exeter City winning. Visiting London galleries. Seeing the 'the SOUTH WEST' sign on the M5. Boarding the train at Waterloo for Axminster.

What makes you not so happy?

The thought of Axminster Library losing its librarians based on an arbitrary, unfair and short-sighted decision by Devon County Council to cut funding by 50per cent. I don't imagine anyone at DCC has spent a moment considering the long-term implications of this proposal, or the children and members of our community who rely on a professional service yet have little or no say in the matter.

Which is your favourite holiday destination?

Reality: Cornwall. Fantasy: Jungles of Borneo.

What is your favourite meal?

It has to be Thai though coming from Bradford, I do love a good Indian curry.

Any other business?

Encouragement and support from family and friends cannot be underestimated. I'm forever thankful to my family, friends and work colleagues who have always inspired me, especially my wife, Jeanette who has been there to turn to from the start.

Axe Vale Festival in its 20th year

THE friendly Axe Vale Festival is probably one of the best gardening and craft shows in the South West. Now in its 20th year, it continues to be organised and run by teams of dedicated volunteers, and over this time has successfully raised in excess of £300,000 for local community projects.

The original flower festival has developed over the years and now includes marquees for food, crafts, toys and hobbies, art, antiques and collectables, and Axe Vale Community (showcasing local businesses). Shopping malls, demonstrators, arena events, including live music complete the many attractions.

The Axe Vale Festival is a great day out for all the family, with many activities and entertainment for children and adults.

As always, the Floral Marquee will host stands with stunning displays, ranging from orchids to carnivorous plants, chrysanthemums to Japanese maples, displays of clematis and other climbers, all designed by award-winning exhibitors. Plants, seeds and garden tools can be purchased throughout the show, and as the Festival draws to a close on Sunday afternoon, there may well be an opportunity to pick up some real bargains!

The Craft Marquee showcases over 8,000 square metres of handmade, locally crafted items; from silver jewellery to fused glass, from turned wooden bowls to wildlife photography, with art, bags, knitwear and beauty products. With over 60 stands, including live demonstrations, there is guaranteed to be something to inspire and entice everyone, including gift buyers – so why not treat yourself!

Feeling hungry, then head for the Food Hall where you will find an excellent range of locally sourced pies, pasties, sausages, cheeses, puddings, yoghurts, fudge, chutneys, and homemade bread and cakes. And don't forget to sample the locally made drinks too. Also there will be a number of food mobiles around the showground.

The toys and hobbies marquee is full of fabulous collections; from model boats to milk bottles and lots in-between, including a colourful hand-made Fairground. This marquee really does have something for everyone to admire and enjoy. All the exhibitors are passionate about their collections and are very happy to answer questions and share reminiscences with visitors.

Enjoy visiting the Antiques and collectable marquee (which includes vintage retro) for glass & china, gem jewellery, bronzes, silver, ceramics, lamps, pictures, small items of furniture, 1950's Art Nouveau, Victorian copper, brass, treen, vintage linen, pictures, clocks, coins, model cars, postcards, cigarette cards, medals, stamps, militaria, bric-a-brac, tea pots, cameos, watches, garden items, toys, chairs, stools, paperweights and curios.

Visit the Annual Show of the Axminster and District Horticultural Society with its large number of classes and the exhibition and sale of the local Art Society.

Finally, to round off your day, enjoy a shopping spree in the ever popular Shopping Malls which feature a wonderful range of clothes and jewellery, and plenty of ideas for your home and garden.

Bason thrills on the Beer Wurlitzer

MATTHEW Bason entertained the audience at Beer on Saturday, May 10th, to a wonderful afternoon of music played on the Beer Wurlitzer, his keyboards and accordion. Matthew was classically trained on the piano and began to teach himself the organ aged 12. He performs all around the UK and has toured in the USA, Canada, Australia and Europe.

Matthew played a wide range of music, all delivered with fun and panache, and he even showed his versatility by singing a medley from Oklahoma encouraging audience participation. Matthew has been performing on the Beer Wurlitzer for some years but commented "It's now lovely to play, very responsive, it's like playing a new organ, unrecognisable from previous years..."

Prior to the show Trevor Bolshaw, the President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer, made a presentation to Glen Twamley, Chairman, who has been the driving force in restoring the organ to its former glory and in recognition of his devotion to the project and giving so much of his time and expertise. Although Glen has now moved to Sussex, he will still be playing a major role in all activities.

The next show will be on June 14th at 2pm when there will be a double bill of David Redfern at the Wurlitzer with Songstress, Lynn Riley. Shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ - admittance is £7 on the door which includes interval refreshments. For further information please visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

AN EVENING WITH RICHARD MANGAN

AUTHOR, wit and raconteur, Richard Mangan, will be recalling tales from his life in the theatre at St Andrew's Church, Colyton on Wednesday, June 11th at 7.30pm - entrance free.

A Lancastrian by birth, he has worked in regional theatre, the West End and the National Theatre. He has been lucky enough to work with some of the great names in British theatre - Olivier, Richardson, Gambon, Jacobi, Peggy Ashcroft and Maggie Smith.

There will also be preview of Blithe Spirit by Noel Coward, which is to be performed by the Colyton Theatre Group in June. Hot on the heels of the wonderfully successful 'Lord Athur's Crime' last year, they are proud to present one of Coward's best loved plays for their 40th anniversary. The talented cast directed by Jeff Hutchinson, who played a major role in last year's play, will bring to life this improbable farce and promise to fill your evening with much enjoyment.

Be spirited away this summer with a performance not be missed, from Wednesday, June 25th to Saturday, June 28th at 7.30pm in Colyton Town Hall.

Beware! Circus Berzercus are coming to the Beehive

STEVE and Ben - aka Circus Berzercus - are the local lads that have been entertaining us for years. The duo are a Seriously funny, award-winning, traditional double act, likened to Morecambe and Wise.

The audience are often seen to cry with laughter as the plot of 'A Komedy of Errors' becomes more ludicrous. Members of the audience add to the hilarity, and disaster for Gerald's show seems inevitable.

A Komedy of Errors is brilliant for all ages, it has everything - music, juggling, unicycling, audience participation, magic and loads of laughs.

The show comes to The Beehive in Honiton on Saturday, June 14th at 7pm. Tickets are £8 adults, £6 children and £25 family. More details can be found online at www.beehivehoniton.co.uk or by calling 01404 384050.

Mazy Meg and The Honey Bees

ANGEL Heart Theatre will bring their spell-binding show, 'Mazymeg and the Honey Bees' to the Beehive in Honiton this weekend.

Albert lives with his honey bees on Dartmoor, a mysterious land where nothing is as it seems.

One day a stranger appears and steals Albert's beloved bees and it's as though the light has gone from his world. But someone else visits Albert, a little Pixie girl called Mazymeg.

She promises to find his bees, for she knows who the stranger is- Dark Dewer, the wicked wizard of the Moor.

Weaving threads of Devon folklore and song, a soundtrack by Dartmoor musicians and shape-shifting puppetry, Mazymeg is a spell-bound tale from an ancient land.

Angel Heart Theatre's performance takes place this Sunday, June 8th from 4pm. Tickets £8 adults, under 16s £6 and family £25. To book

Axminster Choral Society goes to Sea

Society will perform HMS Pinafore and Opera Favourites on Saturday, June 14 in The Minster Church, Axminster

AXMINSTER & District Choral Society will be performing a slightly shortened concert version of that highly popular work by Gilbert & Sullivan, HMS Pinafore, at 7.30pm on Saturday, June 14th in the Minster Church, Axminster. They will also be singing a series of favourite opera choruses by Handel, Mozart and Wagner, plus some works by Holst which are based on well-known sea shanties such as Swansea Town.

Solo parts will be sung by members of the choir plus their former Music Director, Dr Francis Burroughes, who makes a welcome return to the choir which he conducted for over five years. The present Music Director, Judy Martin, said "This is our summer concert, which is traditionally a light hearted affair and very different from the more traditional classic Masses and Requiems that we perform in our autumn and spring concerts." Judy has also recently been taking the Axminster Chamber Choir to a number of venues to raise money for charity and said "This is also an opportunity to showcase the talents as soloists for some of the chamber choir who are also members of the Choral Society, plus other members of the Society."

Alan Bulmer, Chairman of the Choral Society said "We were keen to get back into the Minster after the disastrous fire earlier in the year which meant that we had to move our Spring Concert to The Guildhall at short notice". Also "There is a wealth of talent within the Choral Society, who normally accompany the excellent professional soloists that we feature in our spring and autumn Concerts. We are also keen to attract new singers for our future concerts. Our current members come from all over Devon, Somerset and Dorset, so Axminster has become a focal point for singers attracted by such an accomplished Music Director."

Peter Parshall, Associate Music Director of the Society and also Music Director and organist at the Minster said "The organ here in the Minster is going to require a substantial rebuild after the fire so are keen to develop the array of other musical events that take place here. After the Autumn Concert here, we are also doing a light-hearted Christmas concert with fun for all the family"

Tickets at £10 are available from Archway Books, Axminster, members of the choir or from 01404 881838. Other details on www.axminsterchoral.co.uk

Early summer property market heats up

Mark Goodenough of Pennys Fine and Country reports a brisk trade in the East Devon property market with buyers intensifying their search since the Easter period. Mark comments 'The first quarter of this year started steadily with plenty of buyers registering and this level of interest has built through the Spring with the volume of sales rising in all price ranges. It is noticeable that a significant number of buyers who have been in rented for some time are now looking to secure their purchase - this is probably driven by the press speculation that house prices are to continue rising in many parts of the UK. The majority of our buyers are sourced from outside the Westcountry, with up to 2/3rds of purchasers relocating from out of the region. We are also seeing a return of first time buyers as the mortgage rate remains affordable allied against relatively high rental values. The middle and upper price ranges, particularly up to £500,000, are also seeing a resurgence and last week, post bank holiday, we received three offers in one day all in this bracket.'

For your free market appraisal or to register your search requirements, Mark Goodenough can be contacted on 01297 22224 at Pennys Fine & Country Seaton Office.

Volkswagen Reveals 503 Ps Woerthersee GTi Roadster Concept

THE GTi Roadster was originally created as a purely electronic car, to feature in the Sony PlayStation® 3 classic, Gran Turismo 6 (GT6). The result of cooperation between Volkswagen and Sony Computer Entertainment, the GTi Roadster is the work of three young Volkswagen designers, winners of an in-house competition to design a vehicle to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Gran Turismo game.

Unconstrained by the constraints of production models – for example feasibility and price – designers Malte Hammerbeck, Domen Rugicaj and Guillermo Mignot came up with a winning design that was selected by Klaus Bischoff, Head of Design for the Volkswagen Brand, and Kazunori Yamauchi of Sony Computer Entertainment, the creator of the Gran Turismo series.

The virtual car was unveiled on 26 May, and just days later, Volkswagen is presenting it made real, at the annual gathering of GTi fans on the shores of Woerthersee, which runs from 18-31 May.

The GTi Roadster draws on last year's Woerthersee car, the Design Vision GTi, but with an even more extreme design. Its 2,494 mm wheelbase is 137 mm shorter than that of the production Golf GTi, and also shorter than the wheelbase of the Design Vision GTi. The GTi Roadster's minimal height (1,090 mm) and extreme width (1,894 mm) versus its overall length (4,158 mm) help create jaw-dropping proportions.

Power for the two-seat GTi Roadster comes from a 3.0-litre V6 biturbo TSI engine that produces 503 PS, and maximum torque of 560 Nm between 4,000 and 6,000 rpm. Some 500 Nm of torque is available from just 2,000 rpm.

Power is delivered via a seven-speed DSG gearbox and 4MOTION four-wheel drive, helping to propel the 1,420 kg GTi Roadster from zero to 62 mph in just 3.6 seconds, and on to a top speed of 190 mph. Stopping power is suitably prodigious, thanks to ceramic brakes that nestle behind 8.5 J x 20-inch wheels with 235/35 tyres at the front and 9.5 J x 20-inch wheels with 275/30 tyres at the rear.

The exterior of the car is painted a new colour, called Gran Turismo Red, which is designed to make the GTi Roadster look fast, even when it is standing still. The interior features black- and anthracite-coloured sections, contrasted by classic GTi red on the stitching and also on the five-point safety harnesses.

While there are no plans for production, players of GT6 will be able to download the virtual GTi Roadster from mid-June.

The All New 2014 Toyota Yaris

▲ 2014 Toyota Yaris

THE new 2014 Yaris, arriving this summer, marks the most significant changes to Toyota's European sales leader since the current generation model was launched. Going far beyond a mid-life facelift, the project brings substantial improvements in the ride, handling, comfort, NVH and engine performance across the range.

Moreover, these improvements have been made with direct reference to public feedback – from Toyota customers, motorists in general and the media. Toyota has listened to their views about what they like and what they don't like in order to strengthen Yaris's established appeal and extend its qualities in crucial areas, particularly in styling and sensory appeal.

The new model follows the trend set by new Aygo in adopting a more distinctive look, notably a new cross-shaped arrangement of the front end with new headlight units and a new bumper, diffuser and light cluster arrangement at the rear.

Important modifications have been made in the cabin as well, with an emphasis on the quality of the materials, which look and feel better. Equipment and colour choices have also been increased.

Under the skin important modifications have been made to improve the suspension, handling and ride comfort, as well as significantly reducing noise and vibration levels.

The powertrain choice is unchanged, with two petrol engines, a diesel and a hybrid. The three-cylinder 1.0-litre petrol unit has been substantially improved for greater thermal efficiency, delivering better fuel economy and taking CO2 emissions below 100g/km. Likewise, adjustments to the hybrid system have reduced CO2 levels from 79 to 75g/km, with a concurrent improvement in combined cycle fuel economy to 85.6mpg.

The overall aim has been to give Yaris more emotional appeal, but without sacrificing any of its successful rational qualities, such as its packaging, durability and cost of ownership.

Alessandro Massimino, Toyota's Brussels-based product manager, said: "Yaris was always extremely strong in its rational dimensions. What we wanted to achieve was to connect the model not only with our customers' brains, but also with their hearts."

The project itself marks a major milestone in the history of Toyota in Europe, with the Europe-based product planning, research and development and design departments working together to deliver new designs and changes to the vehicle platform that are being adopted for other Toyota models around the world.

This exchange of know-how is the first tangible application, for Toyota Motor Europe, of the new thinking advocated in the Global Vision presented by Toyota president Akio Toyoda in 2011.

NEW YARIS – THE DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

Toyota has made significant investments in money and resources to deliver the new 2014 Yaris, the latest development of its best-selling model in Europe. Almost £70 million and 576,000 hours of R&D work were committed to the project, and more than 1,000 new parts have been produced. Toyota Motor Europe invested 75 per cent of the total, compared to the 25 per cent it contributed to the launch of the third-generation Yaris in 2011.

The focus of the product planning team has been to strengthen the features and qualities which have made Yaris a success, in particular the unique proposition of its hybrid powertrain; Yaris Hybrid now accounts for almost one in three Yaris sales in Europe.

Analysis of press coverage and public surveys (including the opinions of non-Toyota customers) has helped Toyota gain an in-depth insight into what the restyling programme should achieve. Comments converged on the need to give the car an emotive, dynamic dimension, in addition to its widely appreciated functional qualities.

The research confirmed that the key purchase consideration for European supermini customers is a car's appearance; both the design and the sensory quality have to be just right.

These findings were backed up by market trends analysis, enabling the product planning team to give a clear brief to Toyota's ED2 design studio and its R&D engineers and to initiate a close working collaboration between the departments at each step of the project.

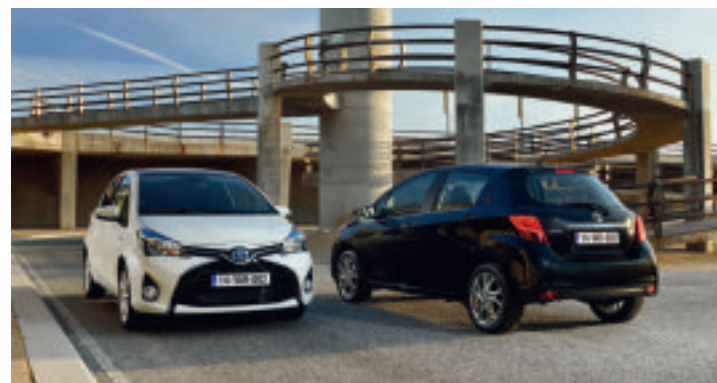

From a design point of view, it was recognised that it was important to affirm the car's character, an initiative that had already been launched with the styling of the hybrid model in 2012. For their part, engineers at Toyota's R&D Centre in Zaventem, Belgium produced the specifications needed for the technical modifications, after carrying out in-depth investigations into the current Yaris's comfort, performance and sound insulation.

To meet their targets for noise and vibration, they had to develop a new torsion beam and modify parts of the car's platform itself – a first for the Zaventem centre.

With product planning, design and R&D operations all relatively close to each geographically, frequent meetings were possible for the project's stakeholders, including parts suppliers. This made final adjustments easier to agree and sped up the decision-making process.

Serkan Karaman, Senior Project Manager at Zaventem, said: "What makes this project different from others we have worked on is the greater development content compared to a typical product facelift."

Brake urges public to stamp out Drink Driving as Police launch Summer Crackdown

BRAKE, the road safety charity, is today urging drivers to pledge not to drink any alcohol before getting behind the wheel this summer, as the Association of Chief Police Officers' (ACPO) month-long drink and drug driving enforcement campaign kicks off. The campaign will see police across England and Wales stepping up roadside alcohol and drug checks, and warning the public about the risks.

As part of last summer's campaign, 100,892 drivers were breathalysed, of whom 5,170 failed the test - a slight drop on the year before.

As the weather improves over the summer, some people may be tempted to have a drink as they travel to and from BBQs, festivals and other events - especially with the football World Cup looming large on the horizon. Brake is urging everyone to leave the car at home or ensure they have a completely sober designated driver for summer festivities, and to look out for friends and family to make sure they also plan ahead to get home without putting lives at risk.

Julie Townsend, deputy chief executive, Brake, said: "Drink driving remains one of the biggest killers on our roads, yet every year thousands of drivers risk it. That's why it's so important that the police are out in force clamping down on this selfish behaviour, now and throughout the year. However, even if you're under the limit, you can still be a danger: even very small amounts of alcohol significantly affect your judgement and reactions at the wheel. We need everyone on board with the message that motor vehicles and alcohol - in any amount - don't mix. We're calling on drivers to pledge to never drive after drinking even one drink, and for government to introduce a zero-tolerance drink drive limit, to help stamp out the deadly menace of drink driving once and for all."

Facts

One in six deaths on UK roads are caused by drink drivers over the current legal limit of 80mg alcohol per 100 ml blood, but drivers with even 20-50mg alcohol per 100ml of blood are at least three times more likely to die in a crash than those with no alcohol in their blood. This is because even small amounts of alcohol affect drivers' reaction times, judgement and co-ordination. Alcohol also makes it impossible for drivers to assess their own impairment because it creates a false sense of confidence and means drivers are more inclined to take risks and believe they are in control when they are not.

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles Ama-Roks Wörthersee With 5,000-Watt Sound System

VOLKSWAGEN Commercial Vehicles is set to be one of the loudest attractions at the Wörthersee GTI festival after unveiling a unique Amarok Power concept. The one-off model incorporates a power-packed 5,000-watt sound system that's guaranteed to get visitors to the annual tuning festival rocking.

The Amarok Power showcases the pick-up's remarkable practicality, integrating not only the sound system, but also deck space for the DJ. The kit has been designed to be fully portable, and can be set up and packed away by a single person.

In keeping with the hard rock image, the Amarok Power features a host of special finishes and materials, including special Dynamic Grey metallic paint, complete with micro glass flakes that help intensify the shine. Wing mirror covers and mighty 22-inch alloys are painted in Gunmetal, while orange-painted brake calipers and decals further enhance the Amarok Power's unique appearance. Additional exterior styling highlights include bi-xenon headlights with chrome inserts and chrome-plated twin tail pipes.

Inside, the Amarok Power continues the exclusive feel, with black and orange Nappa leather, a black Alcantara steering wheel, bucket seats and door trim and special carbon leather trim on other panels. Completing the interior makeover are special laser-etched seat fabric graphics.

The load bed of the Amarok houses one of the loudest portable sound systems ever built. The centrepiece of the DJ equipment is an Allen & Heath Xone:92, with

Pioneer CDJ900NXS units used as input devices. Sound output comes via two VOID ACOUSTICS Impulse 3t speakers – designed specifically for Volkswagen's acclaimed pick-up. A similarly adapted VOID ACOUSTICS Stasys Xair subwoofer ensures that the Amarok Power can accurately reproduce exceptionally high frequencies with no distortion.

The VOID ACOUSTICS mycro 6-loudspeakers used as monitors have been integrated into dedicated functional sound boxes while the VOID ACOUSTICS loudspeakers are driven by amplifiers from MC². All of the individual components have been designed in such a way that when assembled they perfectly fill the cargo bed of the Amarok.

The Wörthersee festival takes place on the banks of Lake Wörthersee in Austria, and runs from 28-31 May 2014.

Tyresafe Releases New Part Worn Tyre Campaign Materials

GARAGES and tyre dealers concerned about the hidden dangers of part worn tyres are now able to access a suite of new point of sale materials from TyreSafe.

The eye-catching posters, leaflets and online banners, which are available to download free-of-charge from www.tyresafe.org, have been developed to help industry partners educate motorists about the potential perils of selecting used tyres. Indeed, TyreSafe's most recent investigation into the sale of part worn tyres found that 98 per cent were being sold illegally and more than a third contained dangerous forms of damage or non-compliance.

"The sale of dangerous and illegal part worn tyres continues to be a great concern to us," comments Stuart Jackson, chairman TyreSafe. "We've been working hard over the last few years to raise awareness about this issue, and these latest materials are part of our ongoing investment into tackling the problem. I'd encourage all garages and tyre dealers to download these new materials so they can help us in reminding drivers about the importance of correct tyre selection and proper tyre care."

As well as producing various educational materials for trade partners to use, TyreSafe has worked extensively with Trading Standards offices across the UK not only to educate their officers on the key issues, but also to facilitate local investigations which have resulted in numerous arrests and prosecutions. Other high-profile activities have included a major investigation with leading motoring magazine Auto Express and a major feature on BBC TV's Watchdog Test House programme.

To download copies of all of TyreSafe's part worn tyre campaign materials, visit www.tyresafe.org.

Mercedes-Benz C-Class is Top Family Car in the What Car?

MERCEDES-BENZ has risen up the rankings in the latest What Car? / JD Power ownership satisfaction survey - claiming third place overall and scooping the top family car position with the C-Class.

Mercedes-Benz featured prominently in a survey taking in the views of over 15,000 owners of cars registered between January 2011 and December 2012 and covering 27 different car brands. Focusing on a diverse range of attributes, from reliability and quality to comfort, performance and economy, the survey is the most detailed and comprehensive of its kind.

The C-Class finished in fourth place, making it the UK's most satisfying family car, according to the owners surveyed by JD Power and What Car? Particular praise focused on its efficient and powerful range of engines, the comfort features and its styling.

Gary Savage, CEO of Mercedes-Benz UK Limited, said: 'Winning the family car class is an achievement we're proud of - not least because it's possibly the most demanding segment of them all. Our customers rightly depend on their Mercedes-Benz and our dealers work hard to exceed expectations and make the ownership experience as enjoyable and reliable as the cars themselves. Likewise, our engineers and designers go to extraordinary lengths to ensure our cars meet the exacting standards of safety, comfort, versatility and quality expected of any Mercedes-Benz relied on to carry families day in, day out.'

Launched in 2007, the 204 series C-Class accounted for over 165,000 registrations in the UK and 2.4 million registrations globally, making it the most popular single model in the Mercedes-Benz range during this time.

Sandra stars in second triathlon outing

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

THREE members of Honiton Running Club travelled to Taunton last Sunday to take part in the TAUNTON TRIATHLON based at Taunton School.

The event comprised of 400 metres in the pool, followed by what was supposed to be a 20k bike ride, that at the last minute was changed to 30k! This was followed by a 5k run.

Richard Harvey has plenty of experience of triathlons, whilst for Sandra and Nick Thorpe it was their second and first attempts respectively.

Not surprisingly Richard led the Honiton contingency home in a combined time of 1.28.54 in 40th place (10th in his age category) Richard was a little disappointed with his swim and like many found the extreme shallowness of the pool difficult to deal with.

More of a surprise was that Sandra, in only her second triathlon, won her age category in a time of 1.49.39 and 136th overall. The fact that she is actually four months shy of her next big birthday, seems to have eluded the judges!

Sandra was naturally delighted to leave husband Nick in her wake as he finished just over a minute adrift in 1.50.59 in 142nd position and 5th in his age category. Nick has vowed to have revenge next time.

The race was won by Aled Jones in a time of 1.08.50. A 173 completed the race.

On the same day two Honiton runners went to CREWKERNE to take part in the 10k.

This race has an undulating out and back route which includes a loop through Merriott.

Vernon Gillard came in first for Honiton in 37th place in 45 minutes 51 seconds with Esme Moffett coming a respectable 79th place in 51:17.

The race was won by Kieran Young in the fantastic time of 35:37 and there were 181 finishers.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

A HARDCORE team of ladies; Janet Woodward, Sue and Jess Tubbs, Carole Goddard, Gill Day plus guest man Jon Day successfully conquered the YORKSHIRE THREE PEAKS CHALLENGE on Saturday.

The circular 25-mile route scaled Pen-y-gent, Whernside and Ingleborough.

The girls registered their start at 5.30am and stormed the first peak in under an hour, not being fazed by the mist and rock scrambling to get to the summit.

Buoyed up by the terrific start the team then faced by a long trek and then a four-mile ascent to the summit of Whernside.

The scenery was spectacular but the girls had to keep full focus on the very technical descent. Ingleborough was the sting in the tail, with a near vertical climb.

Once off the top the last challenge was to psychologically overcome the Yorkshire sign posting where the alleged two miles dragged on for nearer five.

A last minute sprint saw the girls clocking in under nine hours, smashing the 12 hour limit. A superb effort by everyone involved.

On Sunday Luke Reed left his house at 4.30am to be on the start line of the SWANAGE BAY SPRINT TRIATHLON by 7am.

The race consisted of a 750m open water sea swim in calm conditions that Luke completed in 14:01.

On to the 20k undulating bike course which Luke finished in 45:52 leaving him 6th overall with just the run to go. Luke had the best run of the day; 22:15 for just short of four miles.

This excellent run moved him up to 5th overall in a total time of 1.22.18.

Umborne Ug 10k

Sunday (June 7th 6pm)

For all runners over the age of 16, if you have not done it before, the Umborne Ug is a mostly off road, 10k run amongst stunningly beautiful but hilly scenery, starting and finishing at Umborne Village Hall.

The 10k starts at 6pm. There is also a four-mile walk mostly around the same course starting at 5pm and a 2.5k Fun Run at 6.10pm mostly on road and flat.

The runs are officially organised by Axe Valley Runners in association with Umborne Hall and are held under the Association of Running Clubs rules.

The hall is a wooden building with parking in a field next to the hall. Facilities are limited so please try and car share if possible.

Positions and times will be taken and recorded on the AVR website (www.axevalleyrunners.org.uk).

Prizes will be awarded to the first three male and first three female runners, male vet 40,50 & 60 and female vet 35,45 & 55.

There will be marshals on the course, a water station at the half way point and magnificent cakes, hot/cold drinks, a bar and BBQ afterwards.

There is NO entry fee. Donations for the run and the food and drinks will go towards our hall fund and will be most welcome.

N1 Triathlon club

THERE was a weekend of family activity for members of the N1 triathlon club.

Anne Ephraums confirmed her early season form with a storming performance at the ROADFORD LAKE Sprint event. She was 2nd in her age group 3rd lady over all in 1:32:01. She beat her husband Jim too who also came second in his age group.

Terry Pares entered his first ever open water event, the standard distance, being 1500metres swimming, 40 km bike and a 10 km run. Terry will match anyone of his age in bike and run but his swimming is work in progress.

The chilly water of Roadford was no help to him on this occasion.

Meanwhile, all six of the Livingstone Family took part in the 'BUPA WESTMINSTER MILE'.

Not surprisingly star triathlete Patrick led them home in a race that was also the British Mile Championship. He recorded 4 minutes 46 seconds in 12th place which shows great promise as he still has a year left in the junior age category.

The Elliott family were in action at DORNEY LAKES ETON.

Club secretary Liz is in final training for the British Triathlon Championships at Nottingham and was very pleased to win her age category in the 750metre swim. Son Tom was delighted to complete the 3.3mile swim race in 1 hour 22 in earning 8th place in his age group.

Club Chairman Dennis Elliott joined Tom in the 3.3mile race.

Narrow win lifts Sidmouth Toucans off bottom spot

WITH GRAHAM INGRAM

WITH unbeaten Uplowman up against early pace setters Pixies something had to give – and it did resulting in Uplowman moving into the top spot thanks to their maintaining their 100% record with a 58-49. This defeat saw Pixies lose the top spot and drop to third.

Sophie Cornish had a great game for Uplowman whilst Lacey Dorliac played well for Pixies.

Flamingos moved into second place, level on points with Uplowman, after beating Tip Top Trees.

The Trees, with Phoebe Confrey having a fine game, were 46-41 ahead at the start of the final quarter, but with Lisa Pemberton working hard, Flamingos they got the better of a tiring 3Ts to win 57-48.

Sidmouth Toucans started the evening still looking for their first win and were up against Blackdown Ladies who surged ahead 40-28.

But the game was nip and tuck throughout with Sidmouth gradually reducing the deficit and, with Rachel Darlami driving them on, they just managed to squeeze an extra goal to win 58-57 and move up to 8th place.

There was another close game between Signs South West and Howden Hawks.

Hawks also started the night looking for their first win and they came close thanks to some good play from Zoe Dunn.

It was not to be however as the energetic Faye Hawkins drove SSW on.

At half way SSW had levelled at 45-45 before edging ahead 53-51 in the third period.

This proved decisive as they maintained the two-point cushion to win 60-58 moving Signs up to 4th in the process.

RESULTS: Uplowman 58 Pixies 49, Sidmouth Toucans 58 Blackdown Ladies 57, Flamingos 57 Tip Top Trees 48, Signs South West 60 Howden Hawks 58.

SEATON played three Two County League matches this week. CULM VALE away where we lost by four shots overall and HEMYOCK away which was also lost.

However, on Sunday we gained our first win in the TCL this season by beating TIVERTON BOROUGH 104-50 away winning on all four rinks. Top rink was Norman Stone, Linda Stone, Jeremy Allison & skip Don Yaxley.

At Heavitree, Seaton beat CREDITON by two shots in the first round of the ladies county InterClub competition.

The excellent play by our winning rink Angie Mayhew, Lilian Hurley Smith, Sue Rutter & skip Joan Miles ensured the victory.

The club played Madeira in the next round at Sidmouth on June 11th.

There was more success with the ladies when they played triples against AXMINSTER away. We won by seven shots, the top triple was Audrey White, Lin Allison & skip Pat Whitworth.

HONITON with Andy WagnerHellier Steele Perkins

WE came to the all important second round of the Hellier Steele Perkins cups with a make or break bogey round.

Bogey competitions are more demanding than Stablefords in so much as there is no consolation bogey point. Players either win the hole against par (+), lose the hole to par (-) or halve the hole (0). Members have had redeeming 2nd rounds when they have made up for tortuous first rounds and sailed through to win the trophies.

This weeks results saw Ben Phillips take the honours in Division One with a +4, Alan Devenny second with +2 and John Tierney third with -1.

Division Two was headed by young Max Nield +3, with Paul Borkowski and Sam Bowyer-Thornton close by with 0.

All this left Ben Phillips winning the Hellier Cup with two rounds of +4 =+8 and Paul Borkowski winning the Steele Perkins with +3 and 0 =+3.

Tuesday Mixed

THE Treble Six Competition is played on Bank Holiday Monday in a Stableford format with the first six holes Better Ball, next six Greensomes and the last six holes Foursomes.

The Lady Captain Elizabeth Davies presented the prizes. The winning couple, for the second year running, were Penny Blackburn & Terry Dimond with 43 pts. In 2nd place with 40pts were Catherine & Charlie Doherty and in 3rd with 39pts on c/b were Elizabeth Wood & Cyril Dann.

Axmouth double hopes dashed by Couch brace

Carlisle Cup Final

AXMOUTH UTD 0

HONITON TOWN RES 3

(at Seaton – Tuesday, May 27th)
AXMOUTH United's hopes of retaining the Carlisle cup were ended by a three goal salvo either side of half-time at Colyford Road on Tuesday evening.

An even first-half saw Honiton find the net early on but the 'goal' was disallowed for offside.

At the other end Axmouth, who lifted the Golesworthy cup last week, went agonisingly close midway through the half when Asa Sandman's 23rd minute header from a corner came back off the top of the post.

But the deadlock was broken five minutes before the interval when Lewis Couch launched one of several dangerous long free-kick's into the area.

His brother Correy got on the end of it to guide a looping header over the stranded Bradley Cross in the Axe's goal.

The lead was doubled in the 57th minute controversial circumstances when the talented Dan Broom went down in the area under a challenge from Christian Burridge and referee Jason Hawkins pointed to the spot.

Axmouth felt hard done by, and they may have had a point, but full back Kieran Conway stepped up and sent Cross the wrong way from the penalty spot.

Any thoughts of an Axmouth fight back were ended eight minutes later when Honiton were awarded a free-kick 25-yards from goal.

Correy Couch then proceeded to arrow in an unstoppable drive that flashed past the helpless Cross and in off the underside of the bar for a stunning goal.

Axmouth did have a golden chance to grab a consolation when referee Hawkins awarded a penalty for a what seemed to be another soft foul at the other end.

But Reece Hales' tame spot-kick was saved down low at full stretch by Keiran Sluman in the Honiton goal.

Correy Couch was the choice of Seaton Town manager Keith Somers as the Burroughs Man-of-the-Match.

◆ Seaton Town FC AGM will be held in the club's Colyford Road Clubhouse on Wednesday, June 18th, 7.15 start.

The Greens require a new Chairman and Secretary for next season and all those interested in helping to take the Club forward will be most welcome at the meeting.

So close!

■ DENIED: Axmouth United's Asa Sandman (maroon kit, left) hits the post with a near post header with the score still at 0-0 in Tuesday's Carlisle Cup Final. Opponents Honiton Town Reserves took full advantage to win the match 3-0.
